

1. What is the large person in the center of the image carrying?

2. Look for clues in the background of the large figure. What part of the world is this image set? How can you tell?

3. What nation might the large figure represent?

4. Can this be considered an image of imperialism? Why? Why not?

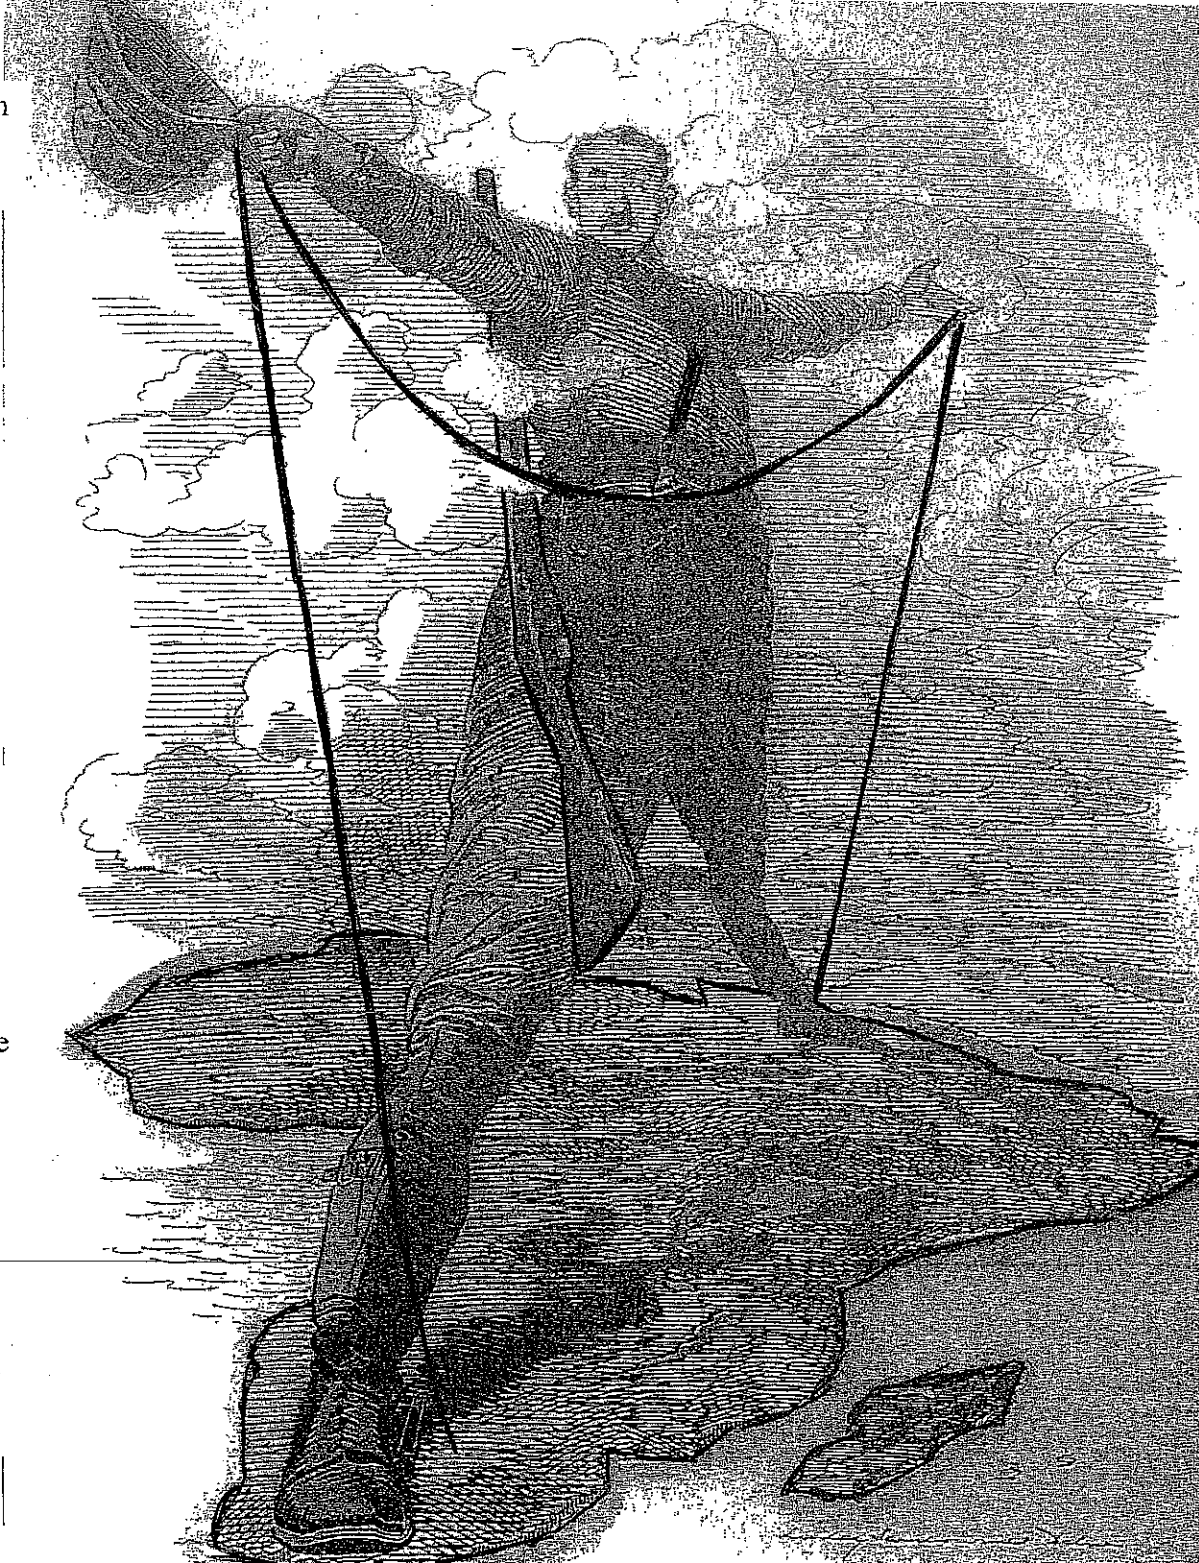

5. Does this seem to be a positive image or a negative image? Both? Explain?

What is the large person in the center of the image carrying?

Look for clues in the background of the large figure. What part of the world is this image set? How can you tell?

What nation might the large figure represent?

Can this be considered an image of imperialism? Why? Why not?

THE RHODES COLOSSUS

STRIDING FROM CAPE TOWN TO CAIRO.

Mr. Rhodes had announced his intention to continue the telegraph northwards across the Zambesi to Uganda, thence, crossing the Soudan, to complete the overland telegraph line from Cape Town to Cairo.

Does this seem to be a positive image or a negative image? Both? Explain?